"First Place!"

I was longing to serve the Master
But alas I was laid aside
From the busy field of workers
In the harvest field so wide
They were few, yes, few in number
And I could not understand
Why I should be left inactive:
It was not as I had planned.

I was longing to serve the Master
And the need indeed was great.
For me it was easy to labour
But oh, it was hard to wait,
To lie quite still and be silent
While the song was borne to my ear

From the busy field of workers
In the harvest field so dear.

I was longing to serve, just serve the Master
But He led to a desert place
And there as we stopped and rested
His eyes looked down in my face.
So full of tender reproaching
They filled me with sad surprise!
Did He think I had grudged my service
Or counted it sacrifice?

Oh, Master, I long to serve, just to serve Thee
There are so few at the best
Let me off to the fields, I pleaded,
I care not to stay and rest.
I knelt at His feet imploring,
I gazed in His face above
My child, He said, don't you know?

Your Service is nothing without
Your love?

I was longing to serve, to serve my Master
Oh, this was my one fond thought,
For this I was ever pleading
As His footstool in prayer I sought,
But there in that lonely desert
Apart from the busy scene
It dawned on me slowly and clearly
Where my great mistake had been

My mind was so full of service, just service,
I had drifted from Him apart.
And He longed for that sweet communion,
That Union of Heart with Heart!

Tell I sought and I found forgiveness,
While mine eyes with pain were dim.
And Now, though His Work is still precious
The First Place is kept for Him!
