

you" or "...go in peace, thy faith hath saved thee." So it does make a difference to have faith or not to have it while it seems that a lot of people now in the Family is covering under the words, "Well, I don't have faith for it." It's because as you said, they are weak in the Word, the only thing which you can hang your faith onto, THE WORD! They are going to miss the best.

Well, this is about all I can say now. Sorry if this letter was so long, but guess this is gonna be about the only one talking on our side since we have been "kicked out".

Only one more thing, Dad, to me really important. You know, I don't want to write all these things to show you that we are right, to show you "how good we are", or "see, we are the best, we are the ones who are doing it in the best way". No, I don't care for the glory of man, (not you but in general). I don't give a damn for the glory of man. It makes me sick to my stomach. I wrote this because I want Jesus to get the glory because He is the only good thing in us. You know, we made, too, lots of mistakes, tempted first to go maybe too much on one extreme, like in the first letter I wrote you, then the "Island Secret" gave us a better direction.

I had a singing job too for a month that in the end was trying to use me too, but the Lord got us out of it. I got assaulted by five individuals with knives at 2:30 A.M. in the streets, after singing, but TG nothing big happened. But all this just shows that "...we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God & not of us. (2Cor.4:7)

It's only Jesus, the way, the truth & the life, & it's nothing of us, we are just a terrible mess. Jesus said, "...Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be My disciples." (Jn.15:8) So, the fruit is not to show how great we are but to glorify the Father. I just want Jesus to get all the glory, I don't want the praise of men because that's what ruins you. Jesus knows it. He knows all, "...God is greater than our heart & knoweth all things." Only when we glorify Him then He glorifies us, in His way." (Jn.8:50)

So that's all. We love you more than the words can say. Jesus knows how much, "...to whom shall we go, only thou hast the Words"! Jesus gives them to you, that's why we need you so much. With much love in Jesus, J & S (Amen, Son! You're a lawyer of the Word!)

TK ART—A "Fulfilling" Ministry!

ART
NO. 6

God bless you dear Artists and thank you so much for all your hard work on the Komix! Almost everyone's artwork is improving so much, even with each TK, so if you thought the artwork in the First and Second Volume was good, wait 'til you see the coming Volumes! Hallelujah! It's absolutely thrilling!

Please also remember to keep the production of the Volumes in your prayers, that we may get them all out before the Storm comes! (Jn. 9:4 : ML 307A:26) Once we receive the Originals from you, there is still quite a bit of work involved before they can come out in the actual Volumes!—and time is short!

Thank you for the great response we had in answer to the call for Artists! Some terrific new talent has turned up, and you'll be seeing some of their artwork soon. Even for those of you for whom illustrating TKs is not the major Calling for you to abide in, we hope you had fun working on the one or two assignments we were able to give you!

Here is a reminder that the final print-size of the True Komix is 13.5 cm by 19.1 cm. We've received several TKs recently which were the wrong proportions, so if you are drawing larger than actual final print-size please use the Proportion Guide on page 182 of FN 39 to check that your proportions are correct, and neither too long or too wide! Thank you! (PS—Even if you think your proportions are correct, could you please double-check them anyway? GBY!)

We have recently been sadly surprised to learn that several Artists have not carefully read and followed the guidelines in the Art Advisories, and have consequently been making unnecessary mistakes such as using Tone Screens which are far too fine to print well, etc., etc. Please carefully study these important points again, as many of these detailed instructions were written by the top photographers and darkroom technicians in the Family, who know exactly what will and will not print well!

Please, whenever possible, try to have a sentence begin and end in the same balloon or box of text, as you can easily confuse your readers by breaking the sentence in the middle of a thought, and having it continue somewhere else halfway down the page. If you just do not have enough space in your box or balloon to complete a sentence or line of thought, then please plan ahead so that you can at least "break" it at a natural pause, such as a comma, colon, etc.

(A specific example of what to avoid is breaking a sentence like this: "Praise the Lord for His..." (and then in another box half-way down the page continuing: "...Spirit, because we couldn't make it without Her." If you absolutely have to break the sentence, then do it this way: "Praise the Lord for His Spirit," (and continuing: "...because we couldn't make it without Her!" Remember Nehemiah 8:8, "So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.")

An important point regarding DFO TKs is: from now on we will not be including the appeal (or "plug") at the bottom of the last page. Only on Komix for OP distribution will we continue to need the appeal, asking them to write in for more TKs.

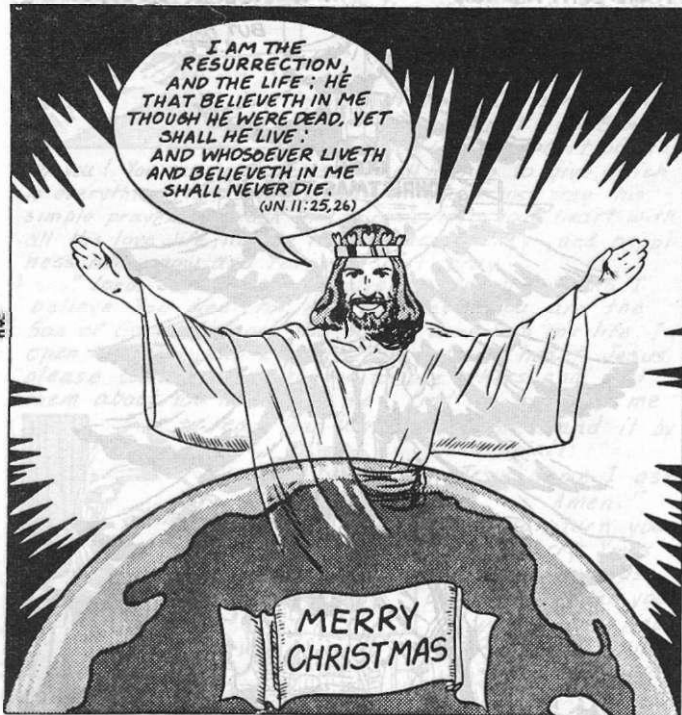

Regarding underlining words in the text for emphasis—most of you seem to be pretty Spirit-led as to which ones to underline but in a few cases this effect has been over-used. Dad recently commented on this, "When they underline nearly everything it loses its punch!"—Amen! Please make sure your underlining corresponds as closely as possible to the original text of the Letter! PTL!

We'd like to give a special "thankyou" to those of you who have diligently made all the requested changes in your TKs. It certainly is making work so much easier for us, and as Dad prophesied in "The Oh of Art" (no. 325A-25) several years ago, "I'm expecting that our 'religion' is going to be the most artistic and best illustrated in the World!" PTL! Because of your Spirit-filled artwork, "this day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears!" (Luke 4:21) Thank the Lord for such a "fulfilling" ministry!

PTL! We are continually trying to keep the quality of the illustrated Word up to where it should be, and for this reason we have been returning some of your TK originals to a few of you, if it fell far below the standard, and we knew you could've done a much better job with some more "pick 'n shovel" work. So thank-you very much for being willing to make these changes. We love and appreciate you!

One last note: Please do not go ahead on illustrating "Daily Might" or other "compilation" TKs without checking first, because we simply cannot give Awards for material we cannot use. Your idea might be a good one, but please check first, okay? Thanks! Love, Just
