 16. "LUNCHTIME, OH BOY! Better roll up sleeves & wash hands with soap & water before we get to the table." The kids can even help prepare lunch if possible & attended by a helper who can make sure they are secured on a chair in a good, safe working area.

work, writing witnessing letters & may-be a little school time, you can help clean up by erasing & washing the chalkboard, arranging books & toys on low shelves in the room, etc. Don't forget to put on a Scripture or music tape. You may even learn to "Whistle while you work!" Mommies need lots of help around the house, kids, so don't forget to offer your services & be faithful in those little things!

Here, Davidito makes oatmeal health cookies with our staff cook.

17. DAVIDITO HAS HUNG HIS SHIRT, PANTS, UNDIES & SOCKS ON A CHAIR WHILE HE NAPS in his undershirt. Children should use only small, flat pillows, if any at all, but not UNTIL at least after the age of two. David likes to choose one toy to keep by the bed, in prayer & memory review, we turn on a nice Scripture tape to go to sleep by, Thank You Jesus!

18. "I PUT ON MY PLAYPANTS & TENNIS SHOES FOR GARDEN PLAY. See these ten-nies? They have a good inside arch support for runners & jumpers Ttke me.

--And see this nice swing the Lord provided?--It has a plastic seat so that if it bonks you in the head, it won't hurt so much as a big heavy wooden swing. Now you can have a swing & I'll push!"(Strap seats are even safer!)

19. PARENTS, BE SURE & DRESS THE CHILDREN PROPERLY FOR OUTSIDE EVENTS, according to the temperature. Watch the thermometer! For cold or windy weather they'll need hats to keep in 25% of the body heat which may escape from the head. A good warm jacket or coat or even rubber boots may be needed in colder weather. Sneezes are a sign that children are usually too cold, or if in extreme hot weather, too hot. Always carry tissues & be prepared for changes in temperature by carrying along an extra sweater or gloves, if needed.

20. "IT'S EXERCISE TIME!--And I can hang on the longest because I'm a boy!"

Hanging & climbing & kicking the ball are good exercises to keep your muscles strong & flexible!

21. "THIS IS MARIA, THE CAT, & I'm steward over her, making sure she is fed food, water & milk daily & put out all night long to hunt for her own food. Remember to be faithful to wash your hands after playing with animals, & Grandpa says that if you are going to have pets, you'd better know how to take care of them."

Stewards be faithful! I Cor.4:2.
