Here are some more little poems, which don't relate to our Bible study, yet we'd like to share them for your use.

RUTH

Book of Ruth

Ruth went walking in the fields, (Take a few steps.)

Gathering barley and wheat.

(Pretend to pick up grain.)
She brought some home for Naomi too,

(Pretend to carry bundle.)
More than enough to eat!

(Pretend to eat.)

A man named Boaz owned the fields— So good and kind was he!

He married Ruth and took care of her, (Clasp hands.)

And they lived happily!
(Clap hands.)

Claps:	1	A Wi	fe for Issec	(Gen 24))
And He	FA - NEAR	ther A -	bra -	HAM LIFE	was	0LD
	CALLED	Best SERV SAC NEED	- ant	IN WIFE.	and	SAID,
In -	"PROM - TO FIND	a CER -	that tain that's	YOU CITY.	will	GO
And	BRING	her IF	she's	RIGHT	for	ISAAC
	WENT AND WENT	the CAM - ga - LUMPH the SERV - a - ROCK	na -	WITH LUMPH, UP ROCK	a ga – on	HUMP LUMP TOP
-	LUMPH - TO SERV -	ing, ROCK - the CER - ant FOUND	ing a tain	ALL CITY,	a -	ROCK. WAY
nd	SHE	was VER -	a y	WIFE PRETTY.	for	ISAAC

NAMMAN

2 Kings 5:1-14

One little girl (Hold up one finger.) Not very tall.

(Hold hand out as if measuring height from floor.)

But what she said

(Point to mouth.) Helped most of all.

Helped most of (Smile.)

One little girl (Hold up one finger.) Said, "God will tell

(Point upward.)
His servant, Elisha.

(Point far away.)
How to make Naaman well."
(Shake head up and down.)

One time, two times, three times, four— (Bend knees on each count as if dipping in water.)

Naaman dipped in the Jordan some more. (Point down.)
Five times, six times, seven, and then—

(Bend knees on each count.)
He walked out strong and well again.
(Walk around, standing straight and tall.)

READ ABOUT AQUARIANS!

(DAD & DAVIDITO!) -- CHAPTER 82

