The BAIT!

Would you do it for Jesus? Then why not for others? "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." 11-(1Jn. 3:16)

Do you only give selfishly to those from whom you wish to receive?

You must not let pride and self enter in.

Oh dear ME!

You'd better be prepared to trust God for "all things", including dancing with the ugly, loving the unlovely, kissing the slobbery, dressing--or undressing--for the devouring, or even going to bed with the insistent! --Or having his baby!

Editing & Art: She Bah

They will love you more than they ever loved anyone, because you're like the Lord but they don't know it.

Oh, No!
I couldn't do that! What would others think...?!

We must die that others might live.

We are in the business of catching men for the Lord, and we mean business!

Are you willing to go that far...to even go the limit of marriage?

Some don't mind playing with fire, but they don't want to be consumed on the altar of utter sacrifice.

and living a lifetime of love for the Lord with your catch?--If not, don't even start!

One of the biggest problems is worry about what other people will think. Until you're willing like Jesus, to make yourself of no reputation, or even a bad reputation, you'll not be a very good Bait or Fisherman, either one.

You are constantly running the risk of having your motives misunderstood, your intentions misinterpreted and your real reasons doubted, and you may sometimes not even know the real results of your planting of the seeds of love until God brings the blossom a long time later.--And you often worry about what may blossom from your fish's seeds, too!

So it can be a very difficult and trying business and sometimes very disappointing. It takes a lot of faith to stick to it, trusting that God knows what He's doing, and that the catch will be made sure later, even if you can't always see immediate results.

"For inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me!"

(Mt. 25:40)

Do you realise how much power you have when your body virtually envelopes them? Don't minimise the power of God!

SEX-PLUS-GOD:
an irresistible power!

You're a powerhouse!
You're a generator of the Spirit of God!

You're a Priestess of Love, down there to search out the hungry and the lost and those in need of love.

You are the creation of God!

"Hereby perceive we the love of God..."

(1 Jn. 3:17.)

The only Bible those boys are likely to read is that gorgeous gal with those bosoms almost hanging out.

You're the one who is supposed to attract them and lure them and get them to bite.—You're the bait!

Some like brains!

Some like bodies!

I like them both!

There are different ways of being flirty. The flesh will bait the hook for some, but for some you have to use your brains.

Some of them need your physical companionship, and they need to touch you to satisfy them. But some need intellectual conversation and talk. They are so in the World and have such deep spiritual hunger.

Don't be too bashful!

You've got to understand what you're doing and why you're doing it, so that you're doing it not just to them, but as to the Lord.

—(Col. 3:23)

It's amazing the power of a smile! Don't just flirt your body, or he will miss your eyes, your mind. Look deep.

God's love purifies their hearts, and your words help them understand what's happening.

You've got something they've been searching for all their lives and need desperately.
