When there are good, receptive or important men sitting at your table unaccompanied, it's not usually correct or in good taste to accept an invitation to dance from a stranger or someone you barely know unless he is more important than those sitting at your table.

Be careful about ignoring good old friends in favour of new ones you don't even know. Be sure to show them you haven't stopped loving them.

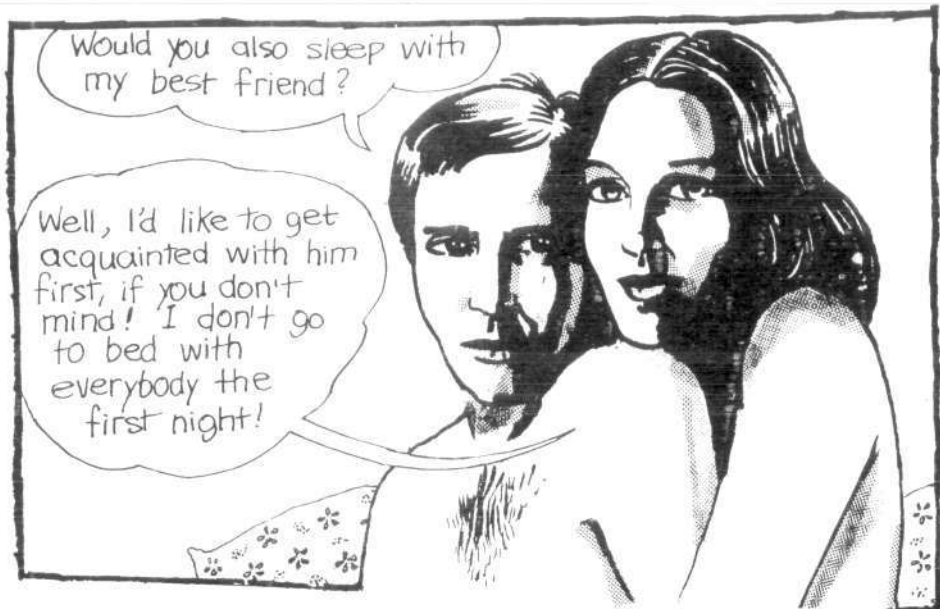

At the fanciest clubs, our special ministry should be to reach the City fathers. We are trying to reach the system there, the important and influential middle class whose souls are priceless and whose goodwill is essential to our work here.

- Big fish are worth the extra effort!
- Amen?

Concerning lovemaking, when they ask you:

Avoid discotheques! They have Hellish atmospheres and fiendish music too loud to talk and little or no close romantic dancing to influence your partner!

Why fight it? Leave it! Better take a walk, or go to bed!

Where does the money come from?

The Lord! God is our Heavenly Father and He gives it many ways: through friends, gifts, bequests, parents, relatives, literature & jobs!

Why do you dance with married men who already have wives to live with?

Everybody needs God's love, even married men! But they especially need to know the Love of Jesus! What's wrong with that?

Why are you so nice to some people when they go away from you and talk about you behind your backs?

God loves us all like a father, even when we're sometimes naughty. Jesus said: "But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you."

(Mt. 4:44)

How do you decide who you want to make love with? - or do you make love to everybody?

Of course not! We make love to whomever we want to or feel they really need it, and to know God really loves them that much to "supply all their need according to His riches in glory!" (Phil. 4:19)

It also depends on how receptive and responsive you are to God's Love and Truth! Do you want Jesus? You can have Jesus right now if you'll just follow me in this simple prayer: Dear Jesus, please forgive me for all my sins and come into my heart and cleanse me right now. I believe You're God's Son and I promise to confess You before others and tell them of Your love for us all. Help me read the Bible and obey Your Words and help others.

Thank You for your love and forgiveness. In Jesus' name, Amen!

That's the hook!
-God's love!
-Bury Him in their hearts forever!
