"Love never fails!"
If you really do it in love it will not fail in the long run, you'll reap it sooner or later. But today for the first time it suddenly struck me in a totally different way.--If you love them, you'll not fail them.

Is
yours real Love?

If it's real love you won't fail them. You won't let them down, you won't desert them.

But...
I need you!

Well,
you
didn't respond!
Sorry!

She left! She wouldn't understand me!

Why did he always have to mention his job?

How much do we really love them?

Sometimes I think maybe we give up too easy because we don't get much response. We don't get results, and it seems like, "What's the use?"—Well, maybe we need to keep trying, maybe we shouldn't give up so easy. "Love never fails!" (1 Co. 13:8) If we fail them, if they go back, they'll be so hardened & insulated they'll never be able to be reached again. What kind of love is it that just tries a little while & then gives up? Maybe you're the only real love they've ever known, you know? I'm sure we're all guilty of failing them at times!

Even Mothers have been known to forget their own. The Bible says, "When my mother and my father forsake me, the Lord will take me up." (Ps.27:10) That's real love. Praise the Lord! Sometimes I think we're too impatient and we look for too quick results. Some people don't show much emotion on the surface, but you may have had more effect on them than you realise. They may have looked to you more than you realise. Some have even given up on themselves!

As long as they're still listening, I believe there's still hope. In a way, as long as they keep listening, they're receiving. If he's receiving us, he's receiving Jesus.

Thanks for His real love!

Help our love
not to fail
anyone, Jesus!
I love you!

We're still marching
on, still going further,
still evangelising
more, still winning
more, Lord, still spreading Thy Truth
more and more every day. Nothing can stop us, Lord, as long as You're with us! So keep us with You, Lord. Your love didn't fail us
Lord, help us not to fail others!

The Lord says,
"He that receiveth
you receiveth Me." (Mt.10:40) If they can believe that
you love them,
then they can
believe that God loves them.

These souls
are very precious.
—And I don't think we ever
give our love to no avail, we
at least give them a chance.
Thank You, Lord.
You have never failed us!
