SEX QUESTIONS & ANSWERS!

PART 2 -- Dedicated to the subject of "WOMEN AND SEX"!

Q: I have been married for years but have never yet reached an orgasm. Can you help me with any tips?

A: Lovemaking is an art! — Sometimes highly technical, sometimes just plain hard work, and you've got to really work at it — both of you! As the Bible says: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." (Ecc. 9:10) — all your might, if necessary — whatever it takes, do it!

The woman should by all means be satisfied, if at all possible, and it is possible by the grace of God and with a little help from your husband or your own self-stimulation.

There's really no such thing as a frigid woman if the right man gets ahold of her with the Love of God!

Boys, it takes time, sacrifice, and real effort sometimes to get her going, and make her hit the jackpot! Talk 'em into it, woo 'em into it, inspire 'em into it, thrill 'em spiritually into it, excite them with words, music, flowers, or perfume!

Words sometimes can do more for a woman than anything else — especially if you are speaking with love, tenderness, and meaning and sincerity!

If she has a lot of inhibitions and she's all tense with a lot of these crazy phobias and fears and so on, wine can really help loosen her up!

Q: How can I reach an orgasm during actual intercourse? To achieve an orgasm spontaneously, without additional masturbation, would be a dream come true!

A: Preliminary lovemaking is so important! If the man has loved the woman properly, she can usually be encouraged and want to make love real bad, or real good!

Boys, you can slow down, and wait for her to climax. In fact, you can even stop movement completely! — And if necessary, she can masturbate herself to try to catch up. Let's face it: Nearly all genuine lovemaking is masturbation pure and simple.

Q: At times I don't achieve a complete orgasm, and I feel ashamed of telling my husband. How can I get over this?

A: I believe one of the greatest assets to a good relationship is honesty. Between husbands and wives, there should be no secrets.

—There has to be communication! If your communication with God is good, you will have excellent communication with your husband, because God is the central Exchange that makes the connection!

Adam & Eve

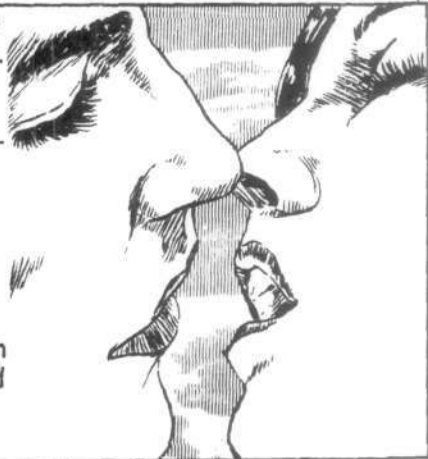

Pride is the arch-enemy of sex! Sex was not the Devil's idea!—It was God's!—And the Devil is its arch-enemy!

Enjoy yourself and sex and what God has given you to enjoy without fear or condemnation! Let yourself go into the bosom of God and let God do it to you in an orgasm of the Spirit till you're free! Make love to Him!

Q: Why doesn't my husband want more sex?—I can't seem to attract him anymore.

A: The things of this Earth can satisfy your body, but God has made you so that your soul or heart or spirit can only be satisfied by the things which are spiritual and the things of the Spirit!

Real love is a spiritual thing! It's not merely physical, but it is also manifested in the physical. So, if you want to continue to interest him, you must count on keeping his love drawn toward you with more magnetism of the mind and inspiration of the Spirit, and that intangible magical something called real genuine love.—Have you got Him!

Q: I am the dominant partner in our relationship. Are there rules to follow in this?

A: The superiority of a wife over her husband in spiritual things, in this day and age, is not rare! When it comes to God's Work in the realm of the Spirit and the ministry of the Church, there is no male nor female in Christ Jesus, neither bond nor free! (Gal.3:28) In the operation of the spiritual gifts there is true equality for women! But when it comes to the operation of sex and the home and the husband/wife relationship, God has made it very clear who's the boss! Only in the physical, material hard labour of some tasks do we recognise the superiority of the man as the stronger one — although there is equality here also, in the Lord.

Q: I think I have a very serious infection which hinders me while I make love. What should I do about it?

A: For God's sake, if you have any kind of unusual symptoms, or anything which is not normal and comfortable, if you have anything at all that is at all questionable whatsoever, stop all lovemaking immediately and go straight to the doctor as fast as you can and get diagnosed and treated — and pray! It may be nothing, you may just have abused and overused, or you may have some other ordinary little infection that's not even a contagious venereal disease. It's not love — it's lack of love — to go on giving other people the diseases that you've caught from others because you don't want to confess you have anything or you don't want to stop making love! That's selfishness!

You should always keep clean and wash good before, and immediately after making love. Cleanliness is not next to Godliness — it is Godliness!
