Attack on America!

By Maria

Dearest Family,

In the wake of the unprecedented terrorist attacks on the U.S., I wanted to get out to you some of what the Lord has given on the subject, so that we can have His mind on things and a clearer understanding of how it affects us. This is by no means comprehensive, as there are many angles and questions yet to be addressed. But these are some initial words on the subject from our loving Husband, most of them received within a day or two of when the attack occurred.

2. As you'll see, the Lord is deeply saddened by the loss of life. He also explains the bigger picture and how this fits in with the Endtime timeline.

I want to make it very clear, however, that the messages of warning and judgment He gives are not to be shared with the GP at this time. They are for us, to help us understand and keep things in perspective. The Lord has made it very clear that our main message at this time should be one of His love, compassion and comfort. Please ask the Lord how you can best get this across in your witness, especially to your close friends and those who ask deep questions on the subject.

3. There will come a time for the warning message, as our calling is to be the Lord's prophets, and part of His message to the world which we are responsible to deliver is one of warning—but now is not the time. Please take heed to this admonition from the Lord so that you don't wind up in trouble that He would have helped you avoid. While we want to be full of conviction and willing to give the message of judgment and warning, even if it's dangerous, we need to follow our Husband in this matter. He has asked it of us before, and the time for it will no doubt come again—at which time we need to be prepared to obey no matter what the consequences. But now is not the time.

4. However, there are probably some situations—in countries which are not favorable to the U.S.—where the Lord might lead you to acknowledge that this is a judgment on the U.S. because of their sins against other peoples of the world. They have committed terrible crimes against many nations, and they have begun to reap terror upon themselves. God abhors the loss of life, and did not cause this, but His law dictates that you reap what you sow, and thus because of their choices He has allowed it. The Devil brought it, and we abhor the bloodshed of innocent people, but we can see why it could have happened as a judgment upon America because of the way she has so inhumanely treated many other countries and peoples of the world.

5. Of course, you would need to be very prayerful in sharing this judgment message with anyone, and you definitely should not get it out en masse, since the Lord has already made His will very clear that in the U.S. this is not the time for such a message. We're simply saying that, on an individual level, there is a time and a place for explaining this in situations where it would not be wise to come across too favorable to the U.S., thus appearing as the enemy of those you're trying to reach. Those of you who are in countries which are not pro-U.S., please be Spirit-led, counsel and pray about this, and do as the Lord leads you.

6. At the same time, in the U.S. and in other countries, you could certainly bring out that this is a sign of the Endtime, and that the End is drawing closer, explaining the Lord's own predictions in Matthew 24, depending on how deep your witness goes. But in so doing, it's not necessary to lay the blame on anybody.

7. One of our Homes in the U.S. worked on compiling a tract from existing material—mainly "Peace in the Midst of Storm," and "Somebody Loves You"—and we'll post that on the Members Only site so that it's available to you for your witness, if you need it.

8. Above all, please pray and seek the Lord how to best approach this with those who will be asking for your counsel and opinions, while staying within the Lord's counsel that He states in this GN. We're praying for you, not only that the Lord will give you wisdom and anointing, but most of all that you can make the most of this time when people are broken and searching for answers, to give them the Answer Man and His love—the eternal solution!

9. Following is a brief synopsis of the events that transpired, compiled from the news, followed by excerpts of messages from our wonderful Lover and Protector. We will continue to publish what He gives us on this subject, as He gives it. Lord help us to be good followers and stay on His timetable, so that He can give the message through us that He knows is appropriate.

10. This would be a good time to seek the Lord for anything He would want to tell you about your Home situation, your security, your contingency plans, your witness or ministry to others, or anything He knows you need to prepare for. Please stay very close to Him and check in frequently to see if there are any new developments He would want to warn you of.

11. God bless and keep you and continue to make you a blessing to many with His love and comfort and truth. Love always in our Protector and Deliverer, Mama

(Compiled from various news wires and international papers:)

In a stunning, coordinated terrorist assault on symbols of U.S. economic and military power, two hijacked commercial airliners slammed into the twin towers of New York's World Trade Center on Tuesday, September 11, destroying both in calamitous explosions, and a third hijacked plane plowed into the Pentagon, setting it afire.

Shortly afterward, a Boeing 757 went down near Pittsburgh, and the authorities said it, too, was hijacked, and crashed as hijackers and passengers and crew struggled.

The casualty toll was horrific: Nearly 6,500 people were either killed or have been reported missing and are presumed dead in the devastation of the World Trade Center; 2,500 were wounded. Another 188 people were killed at the Pentagon. The four hijacked flights contained 266 passengers and crew who likewise perished.

The death toll is higher than that of Pearl Harbor and the Titanic combined; a total of 2,390 Americans died at Pearl Harbor nearly 60 years ago, and the sinking of the Titanic claimed 1,500 lives.

In fact, analogies to Pearl Harbor were quickly drawn, and America went on a war footing nearly as quickly. Air travel throughout the country was shut down. International flights were turned back or diverted to Canada. Planes are now flying again, but tough new security measures are being enacted.

Battleships are patrolling off both coasts of the U.S., fighters are on alert at U.S. air bases, and the government is on the verge of calling up 50,000 members of the National Guard and Reserves. Congress has voted $40 billion to combat terrorism.

President Bush has called the attacks an “act of war,” although no one individual, group, or nation has officially claimed responsibility yet. Nevertheless, the U.S. has pledged to strike back not just at the perpetrators, but at the countries where they live, all but stating that they will not be bound by the norms of international law in doing so. In Secretary of Defense Colin Powell’s words, they will strike back, “legally or not.”

NATO has thrown its support behind the U.S., declaring the terrorist attacks an assault on the alliance itself. Russia and other nations have pledged their support as well.

The most likely target of U.S. fury is the Saudi-born guerrilla leader Osama bin Laden, who has been implicated in past attacks on U.S. targets. The Taliban government in Afghanistan, where Mr. Bin Laden resides, has denied that he was involved, but the U.S. government has sent two aircraft carriers to the Indian Ocean for what many observers expect to be a devastating attack on Afghanistan.

At the moment, the perpetrator of the attack is unclear and the U.S. response is undecided, but one thing is very clear indeed: Neither the U.S. nor the world will ever be the same again.

The Lord’s Comfort And Consolation

12. There is much confusion, much turmoil in the spirit, much anger, the desire for revenge, the desire for help, and the reaching out for meaning and for an understanding of these events. This is a time when the heart of man is open, searching, groping for answers. Into this void, this vacuum, this searching hunger, I can and will pour My Spirit at this time. I will instruct those who may have followed afar off before this, and I will use this time to teach many of Me.

13. There have been some mighty changes in the spirit world in recent months, which I have related to you, My children, in the Letters about the keys of the Kingdom. There has been an opening in the veil that separates the realm of the spirit from the physical realm. So, just as you have received more power and will experience more power the more you call on the power of the keys and remain receptive to My Spirit and believe My promises of rising above and of being able to do the impossible, the other side has more force as well.

14. This evil force is surging forward and is becoming more evident. It is evident not only in the cruel and tragic events that you’ve seen on TV, but also in the response, the desire for revenge, the desire to stamp out and obliterate someone, anyone—anyone who can be blamed. People feel that in taking revenge they will find an outlet for their anger and that their anger will be allayed. They feel if they hurt those who hurt them, their own pain will be lessened.

15. There is a compulsion within man to seek an eye for an eye, and it was God’s law of old, in the days of the Old Testament—to seek payment for wrong, to seek restitution, to seek an even recompense. But this is not My way of today, in this New Testament era of grace and mercy, and in place of revenge, I can give peace; in place of anger, I can give trust; and in place of deep pain, I can give solace.

16. In this time of trouble, My loves, you can give a mighty help to those in need of solace and comfort for their personal pain. Many have been affected by this tragedy, which has killed thousands. Many are angered and in turmoil. But as you come to them with My Words of love and peace, they will grab ahold and they will be comforted.

17. In time of trouble, it is natural for men and women on this Earth to want to pray, to turn to religion for help for their anguish, and to hold on to the truth and the Words of Life that I can give them. Their grief and anger and out-of-control emotions seek an anchor; they seek something to hold on to. The grief creates a deep hole in them, and they will fill this hole with hatred or with love—and that's where you come in, My dear ones.

18. You have the words of comfort and love that they need, and as the nations rock and reel after this tragedy, as many throughout the world are struck with incredulity at the audacity and cunning of those who made the attacks, and some also with spite toward the America that caused the anger that brought them on, you can comfort those as well.

19. The answer is not hatred; it is not violence; it is not more bloodshed; it is not striking back in any and all ways possible. But it is in coming to Me and asking Me to ease the pain, to stop the hurt, to heal the heart. I can and will do this.

20. Those who are prisoners of grief are ruled by this emotion, and they need release. They need to know that there is One Who loves them immeasurably, Who gave His life for them so that they could have life, Who has given His Words for today so that they can have peace. They can come to Me and ask Me to fill up their heart, and I will take away the hurt, the anger, the spitefulness, and the desire for revenge, for that will only eat them up and harm them from the inside. And the worst part is that if this insatiable desire for revenge is carried out, more people will be hurt who had nothing to do with the atrocious attack in the first place. Many, many innocent people will be hurt.

21. So pray for people to come to Me at this time. Pray that they will be willing to let Me fill the aching void in their hearts. Pray that they will allow Me to give them My comfort and take away their anger and their tears. I alone can fill the desire of the wounded and the bereaved for revenge, because in that day of judgment I will avenge all wrongs and I will correct all injustices. I have the balances of judgment in My hand, and I will recompense those who have hurt others unjustly.

22. True, America has brought it on herself, but still, there is the desire for Me in the hearts of many who have been hurt. So I say to you, pour out My comfort and fill up their aching hearts with My love. I can and will heal the hearts of those presented to Me for My help.

23. So go, My children, and seek out those who are crying for Me. Seek out those who need Me, who are longing for answers from Me, and give them My love, My solace, My forgiveness for their wrongs, and My help for their heartache. I can and will help each one who comes to Me. For I love them, and in the midst of their affliction and their trouble, I will not cease to reach out to them and show them My love.

24. There's a lot happening at this time. My welcomers began by taking time to get to know each one they would welcome. The personal touch is so vital.

25. (Welcomer speaking:) Many of those who came Home that day from those devastating events were shallow in their relationship with the true spiritual forces of Heaven. Therefore we spent the last weeks of their life on Earth preparing the hearts of those who would possibly be coming. They've had dreams, been directed to read articles in periodicals on spiritual things, and the sight of church buildings has had a stronger pull on them—directing their thoughts to Heaven. We've been speaking to them in whatever ways we could to prepare them for this major transition in their lives.

26. For you who faithfully follow our Love every day, preparation would also be made in your hearts. But it would not require the intensity that it took for us with these people, because you are already tuned in to the spirit world and preparing in your hearts. You are willingly preparing; most of them were not. So we took up the challenge in the weeks prior to this event to prepare their hearts.

27. For His children who had been close to Him at one time and had strayed, it was easier. They were more easily convicted. There were even those who thought, “Hmm, I must be maturing, because I’m becoming more interested in things of a Godly nature again.” The hardest ones to reach were those who felt they followed God close enough, but barely knew Him in their hearts.

28. We also worked with the unsaved. These were given a special contingent of spiritual forces to bring them along and prepare them. There were some Christians who had lived in New York and understood the nature of those we were dealing with; they were called upon to man the front lines of this challenge. These Christians knew how to relate to the more materially minded ones who were about to join us and needed help in making the transition. There were also other special forces of Christians and witnesses of old, trained and experienced in various cultures and ways of life, so that each person arriving was met by someone who understood them and could help them adjust easily.

29. It was a day of witnessing and wooing for many of us! In fact, it has been a season of witnessing and wooing. We had been wooing those who had not yielded to His love, sending them messages by every means possible to prepare them to make the right choices.

30. Some of the ones who died in the attacks were ripe and ready for answers, because we’d taken this time to work in their hearts. Many of these had received tracts, or read articles about Family missionary events and about other missionaries, and had had their hearts softened. (End of message from Welcomer.)

31. The death of the missionary woman and her baby in Peru when their plane was shot down stirred the hearts of many who had not taken note of Me before, and this was used to prepare them to look toward Me in this event. So yes, there were souls won that day as their lives ended. Souls who had never heard about Me in a solid, compassionate way were sought out by My spiritual forces. Some as they died looked up at these spirit helpers and guides and said, “I’ve been seeing you lately; you look so familiar!” They felt that way because they’d been visited by them in their dreams, as these spirit helpers were looking for ways into their lives to help influence them.

32. At the time of their death, those who were yielded to My loving force grasped ahold of these spirit helpers, as desperate men will grasp ahold of those they know are true friends, and asked for help. They were taken to quiet, beautiful, pastoral gardens, where they heard the truth of the event and My offer of salvation, and many were saved that day.

33. I rejoice in those saved, those who were taken from the rubble of their lives and brought into the beauty of My Kingdom! These “many” did not constitute a large percentage of those who died that day, but they did constitute a beautiful contingent of newly saved souls. And when one sees the darkness in the spiritual world that surrounds places such as New York City, one then sees the light in these reborn souls in an enhanced, beautiful glory!

34. Yes, many were also lost and are wandering now in the spirit world, as they have not accepted the answers I sent them via My spiritual entourage which was sent to gather them. But the many who accepted and bowed to My love came up in full brightness that shone across the universe! They are beloved ones in My sight! I rejoice greatly over them, for they were lost in the materialism and foolishness of the earthly material world, and now are found and liberated in My love. This day is one of sorrow, but their homecoming is truly an occasion for rejoicing!

35. (Jesus speaking:) I want to remind you again, My children of David who are called to be witnesses, of the benefits of helping people to find Me in this life before they pass on. Yes, I am merciful, and I do allow salvation in the spirit world, but I don't want you to get complacent and think that if you don't reach them now, it's just as good after they die. There are manifold blessings and benefits when people receive Me in this day and age.

36. Number 1, they receive greater blessings for their belief if they choose Me during their life on Earth. "More blessed are they who having not seen, yet have believed."

37. Number 2, they have the opportunity to learn and grow and mature, and thus arrive in the spirit world far more advanced. Those who get saved upon entering the spirit world after they die do not have the same opportunity to learn many things. Life on Earth is a very special time, during which you can learn and acquire spiritual depth and maturity that takes much longer in the spirit world.

38. Number 3, they are able to be rewarded for what they do for Me on Earth. They have the opportunity to witness and tell others, to make decisions for Me, to live for Me in whole or in part. They miss all these rewards if they are not told and don't have the opportunity.

39. Number 4, they can lead others to Me who will receive the witness better from them than from a spirit being. For example, they can lead their relatives or friends or co-workers to Me, causing more souls to be won for My kingdom. These same people might have a harder time receiving the message from someone else.

40. Number 5, you are blessed for your obedience to witness. It's My great commission to you! Even if you can't understand all the reasons now, be faithful, be true to Me, and you will be glad you were. (End of message from Jesus.) (See also "Why Witness," ML #3132, GN 741/Lifelines 24.)

41. I sorrowed, I wept for the confusion and the horrible destruction that fell upon man.

Whenever a life is cut short through hate, violence, selfishness, and man's inhumanity—even though I must allow these things because of man's free will and choice—I sorrow for that life. I too had My life cut short, and even though I knew that My death had a greater purpose, and I chose to give My life so that you might live with Me eternally, still My Father allowed Me to experience the human emotion of despair and being cut off, so that I might understand those who endure it without hope. I know the pain that comes to those who experience this sorrow. It's not easy, and one feels that all is lost. It is this feeling in their hearts that breaks My heart.

42. (Mama:) We asked the Lord about the role that true Christians played in this event, and the Lord gave us the following insight into the workings of the spirit world:

43. (Jesus:) You are right in asking about the role true Christians had who died in these disasters. The call to arms went out to them immediately! In the moments after the planes crashed into the WTC towers, until the towers fell, I worked in the hearts of those who have known Me well in the past, and called them to the fore to help others. Many were still in a state of confusion by the time the towers came down. But I used those minutes of impending destruction to work strongly in their hearts to be ready to help lead the lost into My arms when the time came.

44. Some of those who knew Me well did not come straight up to Me, but went immediately to the side of others who were dying or had died and were struggling with the confusion of what had happened. Many didn't know that they had died, and were confused and disoriented. I sent those who know Me, or who knew Me well in the past, to put loving, compassionate arms around them to encourage them to leave the physical world behind, and to face the light and come forth to My loving Heavenly greeters who were ready to receive them!

45. Some of those who died, who had not yet yielded to Me, were too confused to let go and turn their life over to an unknown Heavenly guide. So I called upon those who knew Me well, who were in the midst of the calamity and were themselves just entering the spirit world, to intercede with them. These Christians who died that day were immediately called into action, and they did well.

46. You'd be proud of them if you could see what they did that day. For they laid aside their own sorrow and confusion, and were immediately moved by compassion to help those around them make their way. They put strong love into action, My love in the form of human love, to help those confused, disoriented ones who had just died to be comforted. They helped them to let go of the physical world and to turn to My light and grab hold of the spiritual world. There were amongst the confused both those who were saved, but still in infancy in their spiritual walks, and those who had not yet made choices and needed guidance. And these, My forces of Christians who died that day, were sent to help.

47. At the same time, there were those of demonic orientation who rebelled and cursed loudly! They were immediately surrounded by strong angelic forces to cut off their cursing from the ones who were saved or in the midst of making their choices. Those who died cursing and berating Me and looking into the darkness for their answers were bound in the darkness to keep them from harming My children of light and those who were yet undecided. I didn't use past saints for this job, but strong angelic forces to cut off this force of darkness. They were surrounded so tightly by My angelic force, that if one had looked in their direction, they would have only seen My light shining from the swords of My angelic warriors. But within that circle of bright light was gross darkness.

48. I will comfort the afflicted and provide solace to the bereaved. I will be a very present help in trouble to My children who are struck in the course of America's judgments.

What Significance This Event Holds In the Endtime Timeline

49. I care for My Own, and, yes, there were many of My Own in those buildings and amongst those who died trying to rescue them. This was a terrible tragedy. Man cannot understand in times like this why I would allow something like this to happen—so many innocent lives taken in a moment, so many children's parents gone and now no one for them to be with, so many blaming Me and asking why. It seems too sad to even think about.

50. But know that the End is drawing near, and as it does, evil men are growing worse and worse under the direct influence of Satan himself. The kingdoms of this world are his domain, and as the time draws to an end, he gains more power to do as he wishes. He has a plan for the world, and so he moves toward that plan in great haste, with no regard for the lives taken in the process.

51. Yes, his plan is within what I allow, for I must allow him to run his course; but I warned that in the days of the End things will wax worse and worse, and you are seeing that now. This event will change the world. This one event will cause many things to be brought into place that have been foretold.

52. This has been a great tragedy, one in which many, many lives have been taken, and it ushers in a new period, a new act in the Endtime scenario. This boosts you forward more into the Endtime, for evil men are waxing worse. This doesn't mean that the final events are just around the corner, but it does mean that things are shifting further and further away from the way the world was into the way the world will be.

53. This will cause a tightening around the world, and it takes people another step toward intolerance of others, other ideas, and of anything outside of the norm.

54. I did not plan this to happen, but I did allow it. As this world moves closer and closer to the End, more and more things will happen to really shake things up.

55. This was a key factor in the economic crash. Even though the final crash hasn't happened yet, this event will play a key part in what will happen.

56. These truly are the beginning of the days of sorrow—not for you, but for the world. But these are signs for you—signs of the times. As you see the towers fall, you see My Word beginning to be fulfilled, just as I have said. When you see these things being fulfilled, you see confirmation of the End. You know the End is approaching, you can feel it and sense it, and now as the towers fall, you see it. You see the signs.

57. This is the beginning of fulfillments. This is only the first of the great towers to fall, which will serve as a confirmation to you and to all My children that you are indeed in the End-time, and will shock My sheep in the world. Many will now begin to seek Me and get desperate, but some will sleep on. But there are those of My sheep—My backsliding sheep—who will wake up at this sign, and they will focus on more spiritual things.

58. This is the hour I have spoken of, when men's hearts will grow cold and when fear and frustration will overwhelm them and take over the minds of those who will yield themselves to evil and not to good. These are the days of wickedness and coldness of heart, and of men's hearts failing them for fear—fear of the wicked and the confusion of the Enemy.

59. These days must come so that the Antichrist can arise with supposed healing in his wings; he will arise with flatteries, with ways of making things better for the world. These kinds of events make ripe soil for hearts to cry out for salvation. He will arise as the false savior, as one who can root out the evil, yet he himself will be more evil than that which he destroys in order to come to power.

60. My children, fret not because of these days of evil that come upon the world, but rejoice because the day of My coming draws nearer! Whether you embrace these days as a blessing or a curse will depend on what your eyes are focused on. Many will see these things that come upon the world as a curse, but you, My children, are not ignorant of the Enemy's devices, and you are able to discern that these are simply signs of the times and signals to you of the approach of My coming.

61. These are the times of the End, and times must wax worse and worse. These days shall not be shortened except for those who know Me, for they will feel as if time rushes past, as so many things happen so quickly. For you who know Me, the time will not drag but it will swiftly fly, and you will soon be through the worst of things and back in My bosom, in My house.

62. So fear not, My little ones. These things must come to pass, and this is only the beginning of sorrows. There are yet more things to come. Acknowledge Me in all things, and look to Me for understanding regarding that which comes to pass. I will be more to you than mere strength or health or happiness; I will be everything that you need and want, for I will be watching over My children.

63. Though war should rise against you, yet will you not fear. Though thousands fall at your side, it will not harm one hair of your head, for My hand will be upon you. You are Mine, My brides, My darlings, and you have a place reserved in My seat, under the shadow of My protection, to watch these things come to pass. So let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid, for you have Me watching over you, even to the end of the world. I will be with you always.

64. It's a time of reflection for many in the selfish western world. The towers have fallen and are yet falling—not only these physical towers, but also the towers of democracy and of the free world. They have only begun to witness the great destruction that will fall upon them.

65. The economies will fall now. They will come up for a few more gasps of air, but this has been the fatal blow that will bring them down. There's still a little time left in which the economies will float above the crisis, but not for long. It's more as I said—they will be surfacing for gasps of air, but then submerging again, much as a drowning man who goes down longer and longer after each desperate gasp at the surface, until he surfaces no more.

66. Obviously, this is going to have implications for the whole world, especially for Americans and those living in America. The Enemy is very happy about this attack—not only because of the death and destruction it has caused, but also because it will provide an opportunity to take tighter control over the world political, economic, and overall situation. It took something like this to get the general public willing to do anything for their personal safety and the safety of their children.

67. This is part of the AC plan to divide the world, people against people, nation against nation. He plays both sides against each other to move the chess pieces where he will to bring about the final outcome that he desires—his ultimate control. This is a critical play in a string of events that will bring not just the States to its knees, but the world. The rich will fall first because they have more to lose, and countries like Russia, which are now so poor, will hardly feel any worldwide economic fall.

68. The mastermind of this plot is the Antichrist, and he uses many to bring about the desired results—both Jews and Arabs, blacks and whites, patriots and traitors alike. There were many involved in this plot to divide the world, to divide the West from the rest, to polarize sides, to test the world, to show how easily a great power could be brought down, as well as the financial system. It was a test tube experiment, and it worked very well. Next will be the real thing. The attack on the World Trade Center years ago was a first try; this was a second, and it is in preparation of the real thing. This is just a foretaste; the real thing is still coming. The Antichrist is using the Arabs as scapegoats, since the world is already conditioned to use Arabs as scapegoats; but do not be deceived, because even that is part of the Antichrist's plan to pin the blame, attack the Arabs, and get it over with so people will return to their normal lives, so the Antichrist can continue his planning and plotting for the next major event.

69. (Dad:) The events of the Endtime are coming to pass. The Lord predicted that there would be turmoil and confusion in the Last Days, and this is evident in America today.

70. It's a sad loss of life. Thousands have died. There will be a few survivors found, but not many. The Lord in His love took many of them Home instantly so that they wouldn't have to suffer the long and agonizing death of being slowly suffocated and crushed to death under all that concrete. Thank You Jesus. (Note: Five or six people have been rescued from the rubble of the World Trade Center. The search continues, but hopes of finding more alive have faded.)

71. This is a sobering time. You of all people should not be surprised when you see things like this happening. This is a great evil.

72. From up Here it's clear who did it, how they did it, and who they conspired with. The poor Arabs are going to get blamed again, even though the majority of them had nothing to do with it. Lord help the poor Arab world; they're going to get hit hard because of this act. The smart ones have come out and immediately disassociated themselves from these acts and their perpetrators, but they're still going to get it. And, yes, the world will never be the same.

73. Today marks a turning point in history—a point when restrictions get tighter, and the drive to stamp out terrorism becomes an excuse for inexcusable evils that will be committed against small groups of people worldwide. Today you have seen the changing of people and policies. The framework for the Antichrist's takeover has been moved ahead drastically. Worldwide, people will be more willing to accept the inconveniences of surveillance and closer government scrutiny. The world is shocked and vulnerable. They're ready for stricter and tighter measures that will further rob them of their liberties.

74. This was a very clever ploy of the Antichrist's men. They knew this would happen. They planned it, they financed it, and they were behind the entire operation. They may not have flown the planes themselves, but they were closely involved in carrying out this attack because it furthers their cause.

75. Do you think the world will ever find out the truth? No, they won't. The ACs won't let them. They'll find some scapegoat to blame the whole thing on, but they'll never let the truth come to light that they were really behind it—that there are even those within the U.S. government who are aligned with the AC who supported it, that the Antichrist powers planned and executed this attack.

76. That's the truth, folks—the ACs were behind this attack! They knew, they planned, they conspired. How else were they going to get the world to fall into their hands and beg for more restrictions that will keep them safe—but at the same time drive them deeper into the web of bondage that the ACs have spun for them? It's an ingenious plan, Satanically inspired of the Devil to further the cause of the Antichrist and his ilk.

77. I wouldn't be the least bit surprised if they tack this whole thing on Osama bin Laden. They'll just blame him and declare all-out war on Afghanistan, or attack some other poor Muslim or Arab nation. They need a quick and easy fix to this problem, so they'll probably just go after someone they've named already and blame the whole thing on him and try to wipe him out.

78. America will act and it will be deadly, but it will not hit the root of the problem. It'll just be a surface thing that will help appease the crowds, while at the same time make them willing to accept whatever measures the ACs feel are needed to further their grip on the American people and the world.

79. The world is about to fall right into the lap of the ACs—and, folks, here's where things really start moving! So keep your eyes open, because this is one more step into the Last Days, and one step closer to the rise of the Antichrist.

80. It won't be the last of these attacks. They'll repeat it so that people will be even more desperate for solutions to this problem. So don't be shocked or surprised when it happens again. You've been warned.

81. This incident will have great repercussions. It's the beginning of momentous events, the seed of dark and sinister days ahead that has been planted by the Evil One. He and his agents have been given greater power, as I have said, and part of this power is greater influence in the hearts of evil men to cause them to wreak evil, iniquity, and destruction. There will be yet more bloodshed, more attacks, then counter-attacks, and violence will spiral for a time.

How It Affects Us, and What Role We Should Play

82. There has been great loss of life in these attacks, with many new arrivals in Heaven. Those on Earth are in shock, in pain, in anguish, and even in terror at this time. Some cry out to Me, and I comfort and help them, and others cry out against Me, asking how I could allow such a thing to happen. There is confusion and turmoil, both physical and spiritual.

83. Right now the best response of the Family is a personal one—to comfort those who have been affected by this, to provide strength for the bereaved, peace for the worried, freedom from fear for those who are in anguish of mind.

84. Seek Me diligently during these days, and I will provide insight into events in your world and the spirit world, as well as protection and safekeeping. Walk in wisdom toward those who are without during this time, giving no appearance of evil, lest you become labeled as enemies yourselves. For now, in these days, the Enemy not only sows terror, but he sows hysteria, for people in such a state of mind are easier for him to manipulate and move to do his will.

85. Pray for those who are in the midst of confusion. My children are there in New York, and I will use them to bring many to Me. I have sent angels to assist those who have need.

86. I have shaken the very foundation of the “great and mighty nation” and have allowed her to be dealt a deadly blow. She will rise up, but this time she will not learn her lesson and turn to Me; rather she will yield to the powers of the Evil One and allow him to have free rein that he may establish his purposes and promote his ways.

87. This will set the stage for My children who I am raising up to be a voice crying in the wilderness, to call those who will to repent and come to Me. There will be those who do repent and come, but many will not, and My children will be mocked and persecuted. But greater are My children who have Me than they that are in the world. Great will be My hand to save those who stand up on My behalf. Great will be the manifestation of the power of the keys of the Kingdom to those who use them.

88. I am with you to keep you in all your ways as you seek Me daily in this time of change in world history. I am calling My children into the spotlight.

89. You, My children, walk a fine line and must be very careful and prayerful. The vacuum that is created by the lack of answers provides you with an opportunity to give My message. You must be prayerful that you appear not to be taking advantage of people in their grief. Yet the message you bring of Me and My love is what they need.

90. My heart grieves for all who hurt and suffer. This is man’s inhumanity to man. These men, taking matters into their own hands, only bring grief upon grief. I would that My children join hand in hand to help any and all who suffer and seek answers.

91. There is no reason to pass judgment on the whys and wherefores when answering those who hurt and suffer, but give them hope and the true answers—Love! Love is the answer all seek. The anger that will result from this incident will not bring the answers; it will not bring happiness, satisfaction, or understanding. But the entrance of My Word gives light and understanding.

92. The depth of understanding and depth of spirit that My children carry will be put to the test in times to come. These are the beginning of sorrows. You little realize the depths of resources you have available to help and comfort and lead others. You little grasp the reasons for the testing and the trials, the purging and the crushing that you go through. But they are to make you into those who will stand strong in difficult times—those who know and understand and are able to lead aright those who seek truth.

93. Let not these things shake you, for these are the beginnings of sorrows. Many more are to come. Many more will seek truth and meaning through all of this. Be ready with truth and answers and strong hearts. Despise not the testings and training you are receiving now. It makes you stronger. It makes you what you will need to be later.

94. You, My loves, My children of David, My intimate brides who know Me and My comfort and help, must stand strong during this time. This event will now make it easier for you to rise up and show the nation that I am God. When people are angry and confused, they’re desperate. They’re desperate for something they can hold on to. They’re worried and they don’t know what will happen. Those who have lost loved ones are sad and stunned. They don’t know what to do now, and they need help.

95. This truly is the beginning of sorrows— sorrows for those who choose to try to live on in their dream world; sorrows for those who choose to serve self and Satan; sorrows for those who reject and hate the truth; sorrows for My wayward children who think that following afar off is the easy way. It is time for Me to try them and to purge them and to make them white.

96. I will have need of each one to play a role in some way and to the best of their ability in the days ahead. Their role in these Endtime events will not be as dramatic and world-changing as will those of My children who are following closely, but even the weak and the sickly can hobble along and help another to draw close to Me. They are not as you, My chosen few, are. They don't have the strength to rise above and to be the shining beacons.

97. (Channel:) I saw a picture here of masses of people who seemed to represent the Christians of the world. At first we didn't seem to stick out predominantly, but as the darkness grew more and more intense, the lights we carried scattered throughout the crowds became brilliant spotlights and beacons—sort of like those huge spotlights they sometimes use to reflect off the clouds to make light shows.

98. While others had all sorts of little lights—matches and small candles and even a few little flashlights—we became the focus of the crowds, and people were gathering around us and lifting us up on their shoulders so our lights could shine even further to light others. It was as though we were emerging here and there throughout this huge sea of people, and our lights were flooding the whole scene and making it possible for others to see clearly.

99. What was at first a chaotic scene, as people began to panic in the darkness, grew calm, and people began to move forward as though they were now able to see where they were going. They began moving more calmly, all in the same direction. We were being held high up on people's shoulders and lighting up the whole scene. (End of vision.)

100. (Jesus continues:) I have told you of these things before, so they should not come as a surprise to you. Yet many have faltered in their vision and are being taken by surprise because they have begun to doubt that the things which I spoke of to you, My loves, My called-out ones, would actually come to pass.

101. O ye of little faith, wherefore did you doubt? Doubt no more. Be not as Thomas, who had to see before he would believe, but hold up your light before all, for it is the hour. Forget your circumstances; forget your feelings of incapability. There was a time to be broken, a time to be humbled, a time to be overwhelmed with how little you were and how you couldn't do it. This was needful so that you would come to depend on Me.

102. You have learned this lesson and it is time now to have faith—faith that I will do the impossible through you; faith that nothing is impossible to you when I am working through you; faith that I will withhold nothing from you—even unto all the power of Heaven to accomplish what I'm calling you to step out and do, My loves.

103. It's a time to have no confidence in yourself, but to have total confidence in Me and My power to do what no other can do. It's time to see My power manifested in you in a way that the world has never before witnessed. They are awed and overwhelmed by the puny power of the Evil One to knock down some of their great buildings, but I say unto you, the power for good that you will manifest in the days ahead will make such ridiculous shows look like nothing!

104. Your purpose will not be to destroy and cause pain and sorrow and suffering to the innocents as this attack has, but to draw My children to Me. You will stand strong against the Antichrist, and there will be times that My power will destroy the wicked to spare those who have not had a chance to choose. But most of what My power will do through you will be to bring the light of My truth to the darkness that is enveloping the world. You will stand invincible before all, because My power will be in you and they will be powerless to resist you.

105. So stir yourselves, My beloved! Rekindle those fires of faith in your hearts! The hour is at hand. It is time to rally to the offensive. The hour of wallowing in self-pity over your battle wounds is past. We must fight on. As you lift yourself from the ground in obedience to My call, I will pour forth such power and strength and anointing that you will be literally overflowing with My Spirit and power! You must take that step now, for the opposing armies are gathering and forming ranks, and the time of battle draws nigh.

106. Forget how tired you feel, how weary in well doing you are, how hopeless or embattled with petty bickering, infighting, or weaknesses of the flesh you seem to be. These are no longer important. Cast them aside! Fling off the weights that so easily beset you, and run the race! I call you now to unite with only one thought in your heart and mind—and that is to focus on Me and to follow wherever I lead you.

107. It's time to again become the army I created you to be, to march forth to victory against the forces of darkness! It's a glorious day—a day of battle, a day of anointing, and a day of victory! Come, My loves, and learn the true power of My full anointing on you. My angels are at your command. Michael awaits your orders. Will you do it for Me?

108. Look up and live! Now is the day of redemption! Now is the time to reap lost souls! Now is the time when hearts are broken and souls are tender. You who are in the western world or countries which are normally materialistic and self-satisfied—whether the U.S., Europe, Australia or Canada—search out the lost and broken, for now is a time when they are more ready to receive My truths.

109. Their hardened, materialistic, self-satisfied armor has been pierced. Before they bind up the piercing of their armor, reach in and give them My truth! Now is the time to get the Activated words into their lives, so that once the armor has been sealed, My Words are within, working and purging and changing the lives of those who received them.

110. So, My children in these western countries, witness and win now! Now is their hour of salvation like no other time will be. Give them My Words now!

111. This is the perfect opportunity to flood the States with your message while people's eyes are opened, while they're thinking, while their hearts are searching. Take advantage of the moment and seize it. It's a golden opportunity to witness, and just as Florence Nightingale became famous for comfort, so you, My children, can become famous for being on the spot and in the midst of calamity when people need you most. People are sincerely searching; they want answers and they're open. The sad thing is that it takes tragedy to open many hearts, but now that they're open, it is your duty and commission to be there and answer their questions, because soon they will close their hearts again.

112. This is part of the reason I've ordained you to be My Endtime witnesses, and as you progress further into the Endtime, it will become more and more your ministry to give answers to questions that people will ask. This is what will make you famous, and it starts now. This is the ground floor, being present and on the spot when calamities occur, to help people both physically and spiritually—helping the Red Cross in relief aid, comforting people in their distress and pointing them to Me, telling them that I am there for them, that My arms are around them, praying with them and giving the salvation message.

113. When you are helping people in the midst of calamity, it's the time to gently and lovingly point them to Me and tell them that I can help them, not to give them the doom message—unless you want to end your ministry early. The time for the doom and gloom message is before the doom happens, not while it's happening. I gave you the message of Jeremiah and of doom many years ago, and it was your commission to give it then, before the doom hit. It was a message of warning, and warnings are meant to be given ahead of time—that's the job of prophets. There will come more messages of warning in the future—and the time to give them is before the calamity hits.

114. If you give the doom message during times of anguish, it comes across as very self-righteous and hard and unloving, and will only make enemies and turn people off. You know some of these people are getting what they deserve and what I have forecast, and it's a fulfillment of prophecy, but you don't have to take the "I told you so" approach and tell them that to their face. My purpose is to reach as many as possible with My love and salvation, and you'll reach many more if you go in as comforters and helpers rather than as messengers of doom. By being messengers of love you'll get the message out, touch the lives of many in a very personal way, and bring thousands upon thousands of new souls into My Kingdom. Every opportunity is a door to walk through for witnessing, but real love always uses wisdom as to the way it's done.

115. Your father David was a visionary, and he emphasized the importance of being tuned in to the news, your local news and worldwide news. The GNs and WNDs were his primary focus. Why? Because the GNs were My fresh Words, and the WNDs were the current events, the signs of the times, fulfillment of Bible prophecy before your very eyes in the days in which you live, and it directly affects your ministry and work. As you go into the Endtime, it is paramount that you're tuned in to the happenings around the world, so you can see and pray. As I have said, "Watch and pray." Watch the news and pray, and then come to Me for My views, and even more importantly, what you should do in view of what's happening in the world around you and how you should witness.

116. Now is the time to get out the Endtime message to prepare people, so that when calamity happens, they will turn to Me. Each message has its perfect timing, and once the time has passed, the opportunity is gone; that window has closed. Now is the time for the Endtime message before the very End hits.

Messages of Judgment And Warning

117. (Mama:) I want to remind you that we are publishing these messages of the Lord's warnings and judgments for your information only, as they are an important part of the big picture and keeping things in perspective. But for you in the U.S., they are not to be shared with others or included as part of your witness at this time. This is part of being "wise as serpents and harmless as doves" (Mat.10:16).

118. We sought the Lord repeatedly on this matter, and He has confirmed several times that our message in the U.S. is to be one of His love and comfort. He even said it would be better not to receive a new tract in prophecy to pass out en masse.

119. Those of you who are in countries which are not favorable to the U.S. should pray about your witness, and can possibly by word of mouth acknowledge that the U.S. is reaping destruction for the destruction she has caused or has failed to prevent in other nations of the world. But please do so very prayerfully, in counsel, so as to avoid coming across too strongly political or opinionated. Our main message is the Lord and His love!

120. By and large our message is one of the Lord's love and His sympathy for the victims, for He condemns all killing and terrorism, no matter whose side they're on. When seeking the Lord about what our response should be to this tragedy, He said:

121. This is simply not a time when [the message of judgment] will be received, but rather where they will despise the messenger because of the message. As I have said, My children in the United States can give love and comfort to those who seek it, and they can bring up that these evil things bring us closer to the End. But I don't wish to give a full-fledged message [of judgment] to the United States at this time, for the timing is off, and it would not be received, and My children would suffer persecution because of it. But I can and will give a message of comfort to those who have suffered. For I am a

God of love and of mercy, and I will comfort those who are bereaved. The message that I will give to My children to use where this destruction has happened will be a comfort to many. (End of excerpt.)

122. (Mama:) Later, when we were confirming again that He did not want us to get a new tract, He said:

123. That is correct. Right now those in the U.S. can help physically if they wish, and reach out spiritually to their friends, contacts, and relatives, expressing faith and hope, sympathy and love, comfort and condolence, and passing on personal words from Heaven for them. But it is not yet My time for a general message to the U.S., or one which could be distributed around the world. That will come later, as events settle a bit more and actions and reactions take place. (End of excerpt.)

124. (Mama:) Just yesterday as I was preparing this GN for you, we sought the Lord again, asking Him to confirm His will and answer some of the questions that folks had been writing us with. I prayed:

125. Thank You, sweet Love, for Your Family. Thank You for the ones in the States right now. They are wondering how to give out Your Words and what words to give. We come to You again, dear Husband, about this tract situation. A lot of folks in the States can't understand why they can't give out the warning message, and the ones who do understand why they shouldn't still wish they had some kind of tract to give out.

126. We come to You now for the answers for these, to help them understand why they can't give out a warning. Jesus, precious Husband, we really need a clear answer to give. Please show us now what to do and what kind of tract we should use if we do need another one for the entire U.S., if they should use the one of comfort that You gave specifically for the affected area, or if they should edit "Peace in the Midst of a Storm," or anything else, Lord.

127. It is a big deal and the Family wants to be true to Your message and get out something for these people to help them. Help us, wonderful Love. We really love You and need You desperately. We desire You and Your seeds. We praise You, sweet, wonderful, beautiful Jesus. Thank You, dearest Lover.

128. (Jesus speaking:) Know your meat or get butchered; that is the situation in America at this point. For there are so many who are so angry, who wish to retaliate with violence—and that violence will not only be directed at those who perpetrated this tragedy, but toward any who seem to be sympathetic or anti-American.

129. It is for this reason that I have said not to pass out a warning message at this time. It's not that the warning message isn't needed, but it isn't appropriate to pass it out at this time when people are mourning, grieving, furious, and looking for a way to vent their fury. It will be this way for a little while, therefore it's not wise to try to show that it was deserved judgment or because they turned their backs on Me. The time for that is not now, and this is the reason I have said not to put out this type of message and not to preach this type of message. It's too dangerous, and it will only bring fury upon you.

130. I have said to walk in wisdom toward them that are without, to be wise as serpents and harmless as doves. There were times in My life when I held My peace and said nothing. You must use wisdom, and this wisdom comes from Me—from looking to Me, from hearing My voice.

131. It would be best at this time to let those in the U.S. work over some of your existing tracts and posters. In time I will give a message about these attacks, and it will be a blend of comfort, but also of raw truth. I will give it at a time when it can be received. For what good is it to give out a message that will not be received, that will be rejected and will be poured back upon your head in hurt, in violence, or in anger?

132. Yes, I do wish to warn people. Yes, I do wish for My truth to be poured forth upon the face of the Earth. But you must also remember that I am a wise and a loving God, and there are times when it is wiser and more loving to wait, and this is one of those times.

133. Do I want to get the message of judgment out? Yes, I do. Do I wish for people in America to understand why these things have been coming upon them and why more will come? Yes, I do. Do I wish for those in the United States to change their ways? Yes, I do. But if I were to give out a message at this point in time that would pour forth My anger at them for their sins, do you think it would be received? No, it wouldn't. It would only cause that anger to be vented toward Me.

134. Yes, there would be some—those who are Christian, those who do hear from Me and who understand the sins of America—who would understand and would agree, but those are already saved. I seek out the lost. Those are the ones that I wish to touch, and they will not understand if the message is not given in an understanding and loving manner—not as the voice of severe judgment, but as a voice of reason and of love, the voice of a father speaking to an errant child. This I will do at the right time, but that time is not now.

135. I also do not wish to give at this time a major message of comfort, especially a new message, for this in the end will confuse; for I would be pouring forth this message of great love and understanding, and then later pouring out correction.

136. [Those in the U.S.] can go ahead with an older message of general comfort that can be given to the Homes through editing or changing the present posters and messages that already exist. This will suffice, and I will give a new message at the right time when it will be better received and better understood.

137. I know it takes faith to wait and to trust, but this is what I am asking of you. I am a God of wisdom and a God of love. I am also a God of judgment and retribution, and I will mix this all together—the wisdom, the love, the correction, the retribution—and I will put forth My Words in a way that can be easily understood and accepted, with a message that will bring out the truth. But you must be patient and you must wait.

138. So have patience and minister to those who need your help. Show them My love, listen to them, console them, and give them the general message from that which I have already given you in the past. The time will come when I will show you exactly what to say in a tract, in a message for America. (End of message from Jesus.)

139. (Mama:) That makes it pretty clear, doesn't it? Lord help us to have wisdom and keep following Him step by step. The Lord did give a beautiful comfort tract for the affected area, which the brethren there have been able to use. He gave specific instructions, however, that it was only for those directly involved or affected by the tragedy. The Activated Home in the US also compiled a tract which you're welcome to give to people who ask you about it or who need the Lord's comfort. It's posted on the MO site.

140. Now, here are the excerpts from the messages the Lord gave immediately following the attack, which give a message of warning and judgment—both for the United States as well as the perpetrators of these terrorist attacks.

141. It was a horrible loss of life—senseless, cruel, murderous. Pray for those who lost their loved ones, for the loss is great. The innocent have been killed—innocent in that they have had no direct contact or responsibility for the actions which brought this on.

142. I deplore murder and the taking of innocent life, and as such I deplore this action against the innocent.

143. The Devil brought it; it was evil and wrong, but still there are lessons for those of that nation. They have not had war on their land; they have not seen the horrors of war, though they have inflicted them unjustly on others in many cases. Now they see how it feels. Now they see the anger in others' hearts. Now they feel the injustice of terror and war.

144. I say to them, learn the lesson. Learn to be more just. Learn that others see you as you see those who have bombed your land.

Haven't you done the same? You've sown the wind and now reap the whirlwind.

145. The end does not justify the means, and those who perpetrated this act will find themselves hunted, found, and killed. They have waged war, have raised the sword, and will die by that sword. Evil is evil, even if those who commit the evil think they're doing right.

146. Woe, woe, woe to the perpetrators of such horrors! Woe, I say! Vengeance shall fall upon those who take innocent lives! Even if they feel their cause is just, woe unto them for cutting short the life of another who has not harmed them! Woe! My judgments will fall!

147. They will find this attack on America a judgment. What America has sown upon other nations must indeed return to them, but woe to those who brought this judgment to pass! Woe!! I will not leave them unpunished. The lives of those lost shall be avenged! Woe! Let them cower in fear or repent, for if they repent not, woe unto them! The blood of the innocents will be required at their hands!

148. Let any who would take vengeance leave it in My hands, and let Me enact My judgments. Don't take it into your own hands! For if you do, woe unto you, as the blood of innocents will be upon your heads!

149. This is just the beginning of sorrows. For I am a Man of My Word, and as I have spoken to you in message after message, so you are seeing the fulfillment of My Words.

150. America is reaping what she has sown. As she has sown the wind, she is reaping the whirlwind. This will be a whirlwind of confusion that the Evil One will use to orchestrate and bring about his purposes.

151. Many are in an inferno of hell as these calamities have struck. This is a nation that has forgotten Me, and they are reaping the fruits of forsaking My ways and going their own ways. But this is just the beginning, the first domino that has fallen and that will start a chain reaction until all the dominos are down and the Antichrist rises to the occasion.

152. Those who were behind this will pay greatly. Although they may not pay on this Earth, they will pay for eternity—that you can be sure of. My justice is always true, even though it may take some time to come about.

153. I abhor the taking of innocent life. And though I must allow these things to happen because I have given man free will, it doesn't mean that I condone it, or that I like it, or that it is My will. Many evil men do many evil things that are not My will, and in the long run they pay for their evil deeds.

154. This has been a case where this nation has reaped what it has sown. For though it is not My will that these things happen, America made decisions, and is now reaping the fruit of those decisions. In that sense it is a judgment—a judgment brought upon themselves by themselves.

155. I have said that destruction would befall America, and it has happened so. These towers represented the arrogance of America, and I have allowed them to be struck.

156. These are judgments—the beginning of sorrows on this proud land. You, the Family, will be vindicated, and your tales of woe to come in America will be validated. That was your message in the early days—of coming destruction and judgment on America. This generation shall not end before all these things come to pass.

157. Her cup of iniquity has been deemed full, therefore I have allowed the Enemy to begin to mete out upon her the judgments that are the fruit of her own doing. She is beginning to drink of the cup that she herself produced. She has filled it full to the brim and now it has been raised to her own lips and she has begun to taste that which she has poured out for others.

158. This is just the beginning of the End—the beginning of her end as the world superpower, and the beginning of the Endtime events that I predicted so long ago.

159. America will be as a cornered wildcat. She has boxed herself into a canyon and there is no escape, as those she taunted and tormented now have her within striking distance. They will not let her out. They will continue to torment her and taunt her until she becomes weakened and exposed, and then the final blow will be dealt, as those standing afar off watch in amazement at how fast a destruction could be brought upon such a mighty empire, for in one hour her destruction shall come.

160. America has been weighed in the balances and found wanting. All that she is, all that she has accomplished, and all that she has stood for and done, has been measured in the balances, and the time of her judgment has come. She is past the point of no return. Mene, mene, tekel, upharsin (Dan.5:25).

161. She will react as a wildcat cornered, and lunge out at whoever attempts to harm her, but her end is inevitable. Watch out for America. Watch out for this cornered wildcat, for she will begin to attack whoever threatens her. Her judgment is at hand. She will stop at nothing, and it will only be My mercy toward the rest of the world that I will allow her enemies to overtake and destroy her in one hour, before she wreaks a greater harm on the world than all her good has done.

162. Mene, mene, tekel, upharsin. She has been weighed in the balances and found wanting. Her judgments now begin.

163. The mighty nation, the proud country, whose people consider themselves the current reigning superpower of the world, has been shown to be as defenseless as any others. The country whose warmongers daily slaughter or support the slaughter of innocents is more than deserving of such punishments and terror. These who strike fear daily into the hearts of poor, struggling third world nations, who have done nothing to ease the sufferings of the Palestinians, these deserve to have their own people, their own country, their own government, their own economy, hurt. And those who would sacrifice some of their own people to gain political or economic benefits are the most wicked of all. These are they whose cup of iniquity is full to overflowing and who face My most severe judgments.

164. Though I do not approve of the killing of humanity, nor support the terrorist activities of these, you could say that through this America feels My judgment, even if the Devil did bring it. I don't take sides. I condemn all killing and all terror. And the terror that the U.S.A., the Great Whore, has wreaked upon poor nations—upon Iraq, upon Palestine, upon countless others, whether directly, or by supporting those who kill, or by standing by and doing nothing—is no less than the terror that has now been cast upon their own heads. In truth it is a mild punishment, and only the beginning. It is but the beginning of sorrows.

165. This touches the heart and soul of every American, and has succeeded in striking fear and terror into their hearts. The world has become a dangerous and terrible place, filled with greed, lust, hatred, and selfishness. Selfishness—how it has ruined the world!

166. Those who struck with this attack struck at the true heart of America—not merely its government, but its proud cities and its proud trade. This country worships money and materialism more than anything else, and what better epitomizes that worship than New York—Wall Street, Manhattan, the World Trade Center. This city and these buildings were as a shrine to America's most beloved god, its pride and joy, its wealth and financial power.

167. I wish to humble this proud people, to bring them to their knees and to jolt them to their senses as well. Many are too far gone. Many will not even be able to hear or see or perceive the truth, though it's staring them so plainly in the face. Yet there are those who will be awakened in spirit; who will sense that these happenings have greater significance than they can perceive with the natural senses; who will in their fear and insecurity, in their shock and in their grief, turn to Me and receive My truth and My love.

168. The whole world suffers. There are tragedies from war and civil unrest, to natural disasters, to economic disasters the world over. Thousands—no, millions—suffer daily, while lazy, fat and rich America is content to wallow in her abundance, while her people and politicians are absorbed in bickering and infighting over trivialities.

169. It takes something like this to make America realize that it's a part of the rest of the world, no greater or more protected than any other. America's people are spoiled and self-indulgent. They care little for others of the world, for those less fortunate than themselves.

170. This tragedy will touch many. This will give the nation a taste of what they have meted out to others, or what they have indifferently watched occur since the founding of the country. They have been like the men of Babel of old, wanting to build themselves a "tower" to reach the sky; wanting to be known and feared and revered and worshipped by all others; wanting to glory in their own strength and pride; wanting to set Me aside and forget Me. But as I prophesied through Jeremiah, I will not allow the nations to forget Me. The wicked shall be turned into Hell, and the nations that forget Me will I force to remember Me.

171. The proud and selfish, those who go so far as to hurt and kill others for their own pride and glory and plenty, these will feel the heat of My wrath more fiercely than those who commit any other sin. For I abhor the selfishness of man, his cruelty and hatred, his willingness to sacrifice others for himself. This is the complete opposite of the ways of My Spirit, the things that I taught—to lay down your life for the sake of others.

172. America is a backwards, upside-down, and confused nation. This tragedy could help them more than it would harm them, in the long run, if they would allow it to arouse them from their stupefied slumber and cause them to see the truth of the world scene, and of the condition of their country and their planet. It is headed toward destruction fast, for the hearts of so many have become perverse and defiant, not fearing Me, not following My commandments. They chuse to forget Me, to exclude Me from their counsels and knowledge, and these punishments are merely a reaping of what has been sown.

173. He who sows violence and terror will reap the same. America will not be left unpunished, but will reap what she has sown. This is a spiritual law, one which both the forces of good and the forces of evil must abide by—the evil does not go unpunished.

Prayer Requests

174. Pray for people to come to Me at this time. Pray that they will be willing to let Me fill the aching void in their hearts. Pray that they will allow Me to give them My comfort, and take away their anger and their tears. I alone can fill the desire of the wounded and the bereaved for revenge, because in that day I will avenge all wrongs and correct all injustices. I have the balances of judgment in My hand, and I will recompense those who have hurt others unjustly.

175. (Mama:) Much time has passed now, and they don't have hope of finding any more people alive. But I wanted to leave this in as an example of the things the Lord asks us to pray for during situations like this:

176. Those who lost their lives are now with Me, or have been given a choice in the spirit world to receive Me, so you don't need to be sad for them. Those who are still alive and waiting to be rescued you can pray for, for their lives are still in the balances. You can also pray for those who are on the rescue teams, that I will give them wisdom to find those who are still alive. Do not cease to pray, for that is the most you can do.

177. You must pray for Bush and his decisions. Right now he's caught in the trap of the Evil One, because he's surrounded by evil and is being pulled down. You must pray that he will look up and call out to Me, for I am the only One that can save him and his country now. At this stage, nothing will get America totally back on the right track. She has judgment stored up for her, which cannot be avoided. However, she does have many, many sincere people who will rebel against the Antichrist, and you can pray for them to make the right choices and be strengthened so that they can personally be saved.

178. You must pray that My Family will stand strong through this, and instead of being afraid and cowering, that they will be strengthened in their resolve and take this as a sign that now is the time when they should rise up with the power of the keys and shine My light on the world.

179. In these keys is the power of all Heaven, and each and every one of My Family members must take these keys in their hands and believe and act! I will shine through every one of you in these Last Days if you are willing and yielded to Me and My power!

180. These recent events in the U.S. will be an opening of the eyes for many of My children who have strayed. Pray for them. Pray for your youth who have strayed, that they find their way back to My arms. Pray that they take this wake-up call before more severe ones fall—for more severe ones will fall. Pray for these, My lost warriors who are caught in the briars. They have an opportunity now to be loosed from the snares of the Enemy before his hold on them tightens again. Pray that they take it.

181. I call them back into My folds, and use these sheepdog attacks of the Enemy to wake them up to reality. Pray that they do not harden, but listen and yield. Great reward is there for those who come back into My Father's fold. Pray that they come and don't delay. If they delay, their hearts will become hardened again, and it will take an even stronger wake-up call to pull them through.

182. Pray for these whose hearts I am reaching and working in. Pray for My Family as they reach out and minister to those in America and around the world who have been affected in some way by this attack. Pray for peace and for My perfect will to be done on the world scene. Pray for world leaders now making decisions, that they will make those that will have the outcome that I desire.

183. Pray for more time. Nation shall rise against nation, and the love of many shall grow cold, but these are only the beginning of sorrows. Prepare yourself for more. Don't steel yourself against the compassion, empathy and burden to pray that I would put in your heart to move your spirit, but be prepared to see and hear of more suffering, more tragedy, more pain, as the years go by. Many events to come will shock the world and set the nations reeling! They will start economies plunging downward. They will set off great feelings of anxiety and insecurity.

184. Pray for those who lost their loved ones, for the loss is great.

185. Pray in earnest for the world, for the lost, for the souls, and for the children of David.

186. Pray that those in the Family who lag behind will awake out of their slumber; that they will yield their hearts and minds and spirits wholly to Me; that they will find the strength of conviction; that they will lay aside compromise and take up their swords to fight the battle.

187. Call on the power of the keys as you send your prayers around the world. As your father David wept for presidents and kings, so I ask you this day to do the same. As your father wept for this Family, so I ask the same of you.

188. Pray for your young and old alike who are caught up in the folly of this world. Pray that they will heed the signs of the times and call out to Me, that they will once again enter into the running, get on board, take their rightful positions, and fight the battles of their Lord.

189. As Satan aligns his own, so there must be an aligning of My Own. You must pray, therefore, for your brethren around the world, that they will heed the call to put away any and all things that stand in the way of having Me in first place in their lives; that they will answer the call to greater conviction.

190. Pray that those who are called will stay so close to Me that they will follow My orders, that they will not miss a beat, that they will serve Me with all faithfulness, and will with all diligence deliver My Words to the world. Pray that I might bless them and keep them in these days of trouble which will befall the Earth.

191. Pray for the Family to walk in close step with Me, that I might keep them safely in the center of My will, that they may do My work and continue to be a witness to the world.

192. You must stir yourselves up that I might stir Myself up. Cry out unto Me in supplication for those that are in need! You, My prophets, must pray for those in need. You, My brides, I ask to pray for the world and pray for your Family, that I might use you to spread My message and reap the great final harvest.

193. Pray for the lost, that I might love them and take them to My bosom, forgive their sins, have mercy on them, and give them a new life.

194. Pray for the presidents; pray for the kings and magistrates. Weep and pray for the world, for the souls, for My Family to do the things I ask them to do. So many need your prayers. Therefore come to Me this day, and make intercession.

195. The Enemy's power is unleashed around the globe; this is why you must intercede. Satan's power is nothing compared to the might and strength I have put in your hands through the power of the keys. Satan's power cannot touch Mine anointed who hold high the standard of the power of the keys of the Kingdom.

196. Hold them high, My loves! Call on the power of the keys and pray for the world! Pray for those who die without the Words of Life! Pray for My Family!

A Golden Opportunity

197. (Mama:) And here is a closing word from our Husband:

198. Witness and win, My Family, while it is still day! For the night comes when it will be much harder. Right now people's hearts are open and receptive to Me. They need answers. Give them salvation. Give them My Words. Give them My love. Give them My comfort. Give them My peace. Give them the printed Word—get them Activated, which will continue to feed them even when you are no longer able. Don't cease to pour out at this time when so many are open and willing to receive Me.

199. The night that I speak of is not only the tightening of borders and restrictions that will make it more difficult for you to operate, but it's also the darkness which will settle over the minds and hearts and spirits of men as they make choices, and strong delusion, gross darkness settles over the world. In those days it will be much harder to get through to people.

200. Now is a golden opportunity! Each time their hearts become jolted awake or more open, if they don't receive the truth at that time, they settle into a deeper sleep than ever. They have awoken hungry, as babes crying out for sustenance, but as time passes they lose that hunger.

201. So seize this opportunity, and give them My Words! Give them My lasting, living Word which will stay with them and continue to feed them long after you are gone. Use the Activated program that I have set up to make it easy for you to feed My sheep faithfully. I love each one, and want to gather them in tenderly. I beg and plead with you! I pray! Go forth and give them My love.

What Transpired in the Spirit World The Day of the Attack

202. (P.S. from Mama:) As we were finalizing this GN, we received the following vision and message about what happened in the spirit world on the day of the attacks, and what we need to do both now and in the days to come—another powerful reminder to pray!

203. (Vision:) I see the black clouds of smoke billowing out of the towers of the World Trade Center, and I see Satan's face from different angles, like different shots of his ugly face in the smoke. I can see him in several different poses, all facial shots. He looks very evil and ugly. His expressions are changing, but they are all ugly and horrible. He's very evil and looks fierce and very intent. (Cries:) Jesus, help me. I rebuke you, Satan! I rebuke you in the power of the keys and in Jesus' name!

204. He looks fierce, but he's laughing. It's an evil laugh, very sinister. His laugh sounds like a scream. It's an evil, shrieking sound, and it sounds very confident.

205. Now the scene is changing, and what I see seems to be inside the planes after the crash, and inside the buildings. Everything is in chaos, utter bedlam, complete confusion. But all of a sudden the confusion seems way in the background—or rather at the angle from which I'm seeing it, it seems the mass destruction is fading more into the background. It's not that it's gone; it's just not the main thing I'm seeing.

206. I see three different scenes superimposed on top of each other. The wreckage and destruction is in the background and I'm focused close up on the individuals.

207. In one scene there are beings of light escorting various ones out of the confusion. Those whom they're escorting are touched by the light; they're becoming illuminated by this bright light, engulfed in it, and they're being escorted out of the chaos through a tunnel of brilliant light. Some of them are being escorted one by one, and others in groups of two.

208. In another scene I see dark shadows, and in them are black, evil beings. They are all surrounded by darkness, and they, too, are escorting some people into their darkness through these black holes that seem to suck them in and shoot them downward into outer darkness.

209. In the third scene I see some people all alone. They look lost and confused, standing all alone in some sort of gray mass. I don't know what it is, I just see them all alone and looking very confused and perplexed. They look troubled; they aren't at peace. It's like they're trapped in a gray mass of nothingness. I can't really see what's surrounding them, but they definitely seem as if they're in mental anguish.

210. Now those three scenes have faded and I see a group of several people, men and women of different ages; they're all lined up and they're reaching out to me. They're looking deep into my eyes. I focus in on different faces, on one, then another, then another. They're pleading with me, it seems, begging me, but I don't know what they want. They're safe and happy and at peace except for one thing, and they're reaching out to me, trying to tell me something.

211. Jesus, dear, wonderful Love, please help me. What is this? Who are they? Are they victims of the World Trade Center disaster and the attack on the U.S.? That's the impression I'm getting. If so, what do they want? Please help me to receive whatever You want me to receive, precious Love. I need You so much.

■ Faces in the Smoke

212. (Jesus speaking): You have questioned in your heart the meaning of these images that flash around the world via the media and the Internet. The faces in the smoke that have gone out to the world, yes, they are images of the Evil One himself. And while some have been enhanced at the hand of men, and in others you see the unprocessed image, all have been stamped by Satan himself. Even those that have been tampered with were inspired by the Evil One, for he seeks to flaunt himself and project his image worldwide.

213. I show you the true picture, My love, for you see a selection of the many and varied faces the Evil One wears. You see his true colors as he gloats over what he perceives is great victory for his kingdom of darkness. Yes, Satan himself did show his ugly face on that frightful day. Those who are his own did see, and drew on his power. And I have allowed those of My Own children who have beheld to see that they might arm themselves in prayer.

214. Satan himself presided over this tragedy, for he personally guided these evil men to do their deadly deeds. Satan was there guiding them right to the point of destruction, for these men drew their inspiration straight from the vile heart and mind of Lucifer himself. Satan inspired them, led them. He himself commanded the mission. He did not leave it up to his emissaries, but was personally directing the attack. He was present to direct and oversee and to keep his evil men focused, that they might follow through with his lethal plan. And thus as the smoke billowed, Satan flashed his many faces to those who were open to see, as he screamed his advancement abroad.

■ I Call You to Intercede!

215. And now I ask you, My children, to be true to a great responsibility I put in your hands—I call you to intercede. I show you what has transpired, the fate of those who entered the world of the spirit that day. Those who knew Me, or who willingly chose Me when they came to the realization of what was going on around them, were protected by My Heavenly light and envoys and were escorted into the Heavenlies. Those who belonged to Satan, the evil men who carried out his mission and others of his kind who were aboard the aircraft and present in the targeted buildings, were claimed by his dark demons and sucked into the netherworld, where, when they get their bearings, they will continue fighting My truth.

216. In showing you those who were reaching out to you, I have shown you those who are calling on you to intercede. They have found Me and they are at peace, but they are burdened for their loved ones and they are crying out to you. This line-up you see of those who are pleading with you are victims of the attack. They have stood before Me and they beg for My mercy. They have pled with Me, asking to communicate with you, and I grant them their desire, for they wish to get a message to My Family. Listen to their cries for help, for they plead with the children of David to make intercession.

217. I show all this to you, the children of David, that you might intercede, for your prayers have power to deliver. I show you this that you might continue to take your stand in this great Endtime battle against the forces of darkness, that you might pray against the forces of darkness and pray for those in need, those who are trapped, those who need deliverance, and those who are yet blind to the truth.

218. The fight continues, My loves, and so much depends on your prayers of intercession. You must pray in earnest against your adversary, the Devil, and those who are sucked into outer darkness with him, for these will continue to fight the light of My truth. They will continue to fight My truth. Though their power is puny in My sight, yet you must pray. Your prayers determine the outcome of every battle.

219. You must stand firm, and continue to stand guard. Call on the power of the keys of the Kingdom and release My power of protection on behalf of My children in the world, on behalf of those who are yet in the valley of indecision in the spirit world, on behalf of those of both worlds who are trapped in Satan's noose. You must pray, pray, and pray again that My Word will reach the nations. Pray for yourselves that you might spread the light to the darkened world.

220. I pull back the veil and show you what transpires in the spirit in order that you might arm yourselves to fight, stand firm, and bear My light to the nations. This event on U.S. soil marks the beginning of swift and drastic change in the world. You enter days of fierce battle, as evil men and seducers grow bold. You have nothing to fear, My children, as long as you stand firm on My promise. These will be your days of glory.

221. Never has the world had such need of intercession! Never has the world had such need of My power—the power I commit to your care. Continue to call on the power of keys I have put in your hands. Call on My strength and power and intercede for those in need. Be prudent, be wise, and walk in prayer. This is where your greatest power lies; this is where every great work I will perform through you begins. Every time, it will begin through prayer. Intercede for the dying world. (End of message from Jesus.)

■ Plea for Help from Attack Victim

222. (Attack victim speaking:) Thank you for listening, and for answering our plea for help. While the world mourns our passing, we beg of you, the children of David, to intercede on our behalf.

223. We would like to tell our loved ones and those left behind, yet we know most are not ready to hear. There is no need to cry for us, for we now know the truth beyond any shadow of doubt. We wish we could get through to them, and this is why we implore your help.

224. It is for those we leave behind that we ask your specific prayers. We beg of you, will you pray for the lost souls? Pray for those who are left in the world. Pray that their minds will be opened to the truth of the one true Light. Don't cry for us, but pray for the world, pray for the survivors, pray for yourselves, that your resolve to spread the truth will be strengthened.

225. Pray against the deception of Satan, who has pulled the wool over so many eyes. Pray for lost souls and for their salvation. We would get through to them if only we could. Many of us who are now safe in our Savior's arms wish to get through to loved ones, to friends, and to our fellow Americans, but there is a barrier. Pride, lethargy, self-satisfaction, vainglory, and other roadblocks are in the way. This is why we ask you, the children of David, to intercede.

226. Will you intercede for our loved ones? Will you pray that the scales may fall from their eyes? Your prayers move mountains. Your prayers reach Jesus' ears. Now we see the power of your prayers. Now we see the influence you have with the Almighty. Now we see that you are truly close to His heart. Now we see your prayers make a difference. Now we see the power you possess to deliver.

227. We plead with you, Family of the true God, will you pray that the truth will reach their hearts? Will you pray for the salvation of His children? Will you pray that our loved ones will not harden their hearts, but that they will be open to the truth and not be followers of the blind?

228. Now we see, now we understand. Satan has blinded so many eyes. Will you intercede? Will you pray that their eyes will open to the truth?

229. Thank you for listening to our plea for help. Thank you for obeying and following the call Jesus has placed on your shoulders. Now we see, now we see, now we see. Jesus has been merciful to us, who were before as deaf and dumb and blind. But now we see your link. Now we see the power that is given to you, the children of David. Thank you for hearing our cause. Thank you for interceding. Thank you for rescuing the lost. (End of message from attack victim.)
